

Enphase Energy Releases Inaugural Environmental, Social, and Governance Report

FREMONT, Calif., Jan. 21, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Enphase Energy, Inc. (NASDAQ: ENPH), a global energy management technology company and the world's leading supplier of microinverter-based solar-plus-storage systems, today announced the release of its inaugural Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Report which provides an overview of the Company's ESG policies and initiatives.

"We are pleased to publish our inaugural ESG report and share our progress in helping to deliver a future of sustainability for all, while focusing on our core values, and never losing sight of the three commitments that have guided us since the beginning: innovation, quality, and social responsibility," said Badri Kothandaraman, president and CEO of Enphase Energy. "Since inception, Enphase has been committed to serving its communities and improving the environment. Sustainability is at the core of what we do. We are proud of our team at Enphase as we continue to work towards building energy independence through our solar-plus-storage system products."

The report identifies key focus areas and fundamental ESG standards relevant to Enphase's business and its investors based on guidance from the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) industry specific standards, as well as certain UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) that most closely align with Enphase's business activities and strategy.
